A Foreigner's Faith

Most of us are the foreigners, the non-Israelites, about whom today's First Reading prophesies.

Coming to worship the God of Israel, we stand in the line of faith epitomized by the Canaanite woman in today's Gospel. Calling to Jesus as Lord and Son of David, this foreigner shows her great faith in God's covenant with Israel.

Jesus tests her faith three times. He refuses to answer her cry. Then, He tells her His mission is only to Israelites. Finally, He uses "dog," an epithet used to disparage non-Israelites. Yet she persists, believing that He alone offers salvation.

In this family drama, we see fulfilled Isaiah's prophecy and the promise we sing of in today's Psalm. In Jesus, God makes known among all the nations His way and His salvation.

At the start of salvation history, God called Abraham. He chose his offspring, Israel, from all the nations on the face of the earth to build His covenant kingdom.

In God's plan, Abraham was to be the father of many nations. Israel was to be the firstborn of a worldwide family of God, made up of all who believe what the Canaanite professes; that Jesus is Lord.

Jesus came first to restore the kingdom to Israel. But His ultimate mission was the reconciliation of the world, as Paul declares in today's Epistle.

In the Mass we join all peoples in doing Him homage. As Isaiah foretold, we come to His holy mountain, the heavenly Jerusalem, to offer sacrifice at His altar. With the Canaanite, we take our place at the Master's table to be fed as His children.

Scott Hahn - stpaulcenter.com

*In the spirit of reconciliation we acknowledge the Dharawal people as traditional custodians of this land.
We pay our respect to all Elders, past and present, and extend that respect to all First Nations peoples today.*

A Place at God's Table

Today's readings remind us of a beautiful truth: God's love and mercy are for everyone.

In the First Reading, the prophet Isaiah speaks of God's house as "a house of prayer for all peoples." God does not close the door because of someone's nationality, culture, background, or past. His desire is to gather all people into his family.

The Gospel gives us a powerful example in the Canaanite woman. She is an outsider, yet she comes to Jesus because her daughter is suffering. At first, Jesus seems silent. Still, she does not give up. She continues to trust and simply says, "Lord, help me."

Many of us know what it is like to pray and feel that God is silent. We pray for healing, for our families, for our children, or for a difficult situation, but nothing seems to change. The Canaanite woman teaches us not to walk away. Her faith is not great because life is easy, but because she continues to trust even when the answer is delayed.

St Paul also reminds us that God does not give up on his people. This gives us hope, especially when we worry about family members who have drifted away from faith. We may not be able to change them, but we can continue to love them, pray for them, and trust that God is still at work.

This Sunday, we are invited to ask ourselves: Do I trust God when he seems silent? And is my heart open to those who are different from me?

At God's table, there is room for everyone. His mercy is never limited, and no one is beyond the reach of his love.

Eucharist28 Update: Eternal Life in the Eucharist

The International Eucharistic Congress ('Eucharist28') is coming to Sydney in 2028! At every Mass, the celebration of the Eucharist is a moment of communion, where we are united in Christ, who's body and blood we share. In the Scriptures, Jesus tells us, "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise them up on the last day." (John 6:54) Through the Eucharist, Christ unites us to Himself and draws us into the eternal life He promises. This invitation is for everyone, even those who have died. At each Mass, the Church offers the Eucharistic sacrifice for the faithful departed, that they may experience eternal life and unity with Christ. To help your parish and community experience this moment of Eucharistic renewal on the journey to Eucharist28, head to eucharist28.org for more.

*And perhaps that is not a bad image for today's Gospel: God's table is always bigger than we imagine.
